June 17, 2018 will bring "Flash mob" Dancing on the Portland Waterfront- Calling all Dancers with a spirit of adventure! Join us on June 17 at Tom McCall Waterfront Park for the June Dance meeting of One Heart Circle. Some of the details will have to be worked out on site that day, so here's what we know: we'll meet at 3:30 PM on the river side of the fountain at the Salmon Street Springs, which is located at SW Salmon Street and Naito Parkway. At about 4 PM, we'll Dance near there for an hour or so. If we're having a great time, we'll Dance longer! It will be Father's Day and the Portland Pride Festival will be going on not far away, so parking is likely to be challenging. If possible, please use public transit (MAX stops 3-5 blocks away) or carpool. If you know you would like to support this effort by Dancing, leading and providing musical support, or helping bystanders to join in, please let us know! Zaynab (503-260-9916) and Zahir (503-740-1478)

50th Anniversary of the Dances of Universal Peace
A Global Dance Celebration –Portland Event on June 22

June 24 marks the 50th anniversary of the introduction of the first Dance of Universal Peace by Murshid SAM. Dance circles from around the world will be celebrating and the International Network for the Dances plans to make a composite video of Dances at the celebrations. The Portland Friday Circle celebration is planned for June 22 at the regular time (7:30PM) and place (St. Michael and All Angels, 1704 NE 43rd Avenue). The video will be made after the completion of the regular program, in case some want to celebrate, but don't want to be on camera.

During the summer we Dance in a different room, so please enter through the side door, at the left of the courtyard.
